WHAT OTHER INFORMATION SHOULD YOU CONSIDER BEFORE DECIDING WHETHER TO PROCEED WITH OUR RECOMMENDATIONS?

If you receive personal financial advice this will be documented in a Statement of Advice (SoA), or in specific circumstances a Record of Advice (RoA), that confirms the discussions you have had with us, the recommendations we are making and the basis for those recommendations. These documents will also explain how those recommendations will work towards achieving your goals, any relevant fees received by us, and any associations with financial product providers.

When a financial product is recommended to you, you will be provided with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) or other disclosure document issued by the product provider. Among other things, the PDS contains information about the risks, benefits, features and fees payable in respect of the product. In combination, these documents will help you make an informed decision about whether to proceed with our recommendations.

WHAT PRODUCTS ARE AVAILABLE?

A range of financial products offered by many leading financial product providers are available for recommendation by us. Details of the available products we can recommend are contained in the Approved Product List (APL).

Internal and external experts provide financial product research, which is used to carefully select and maintain an extensive list of Approved Products for us to select from.

We will only recommend a product to you after considering its appropriateness to your individual objectives, financial situation and needs. The recommendations will be made after conducting an investigation into the financial products and may require us to investigate and consider a financial product which is not on the APL.

HOW DO WE ENSURE THAT THE ADVICE WE GIVE YOU SUITS YOUR NEEDS AND OBJECTIVES?

To ensure we provide advice suitable for your needs and financial circumstances, we firstly need to understand your financial situation, personal financial objectives and needs. We will follow a step-by-step process as outlined below:

- 1.) We will meet with you for an initial consultation. During this meeting we will discuss your expectations and provide you with details of the services we can offer.
- 2.) We will collect all the information we need from you, including your personal financial situation, financial objectives and needs. If you do not wish to provide the information we require, we will advise you of the possible consequences of not disclosing your full personal information and the impact on the recommendations given. This may include not being able to provide advice on the subject matter you request.
- 3.) We will help you identify your goals and may discuss your attitude towards investment risk.
- 4.) We may consider strategies and areas such as income, social security, insurance, cash and estate planning requirements. Where required we will also conduct a reasonable investigation of the financial products that may be suitable to implement the strategies as part of the recommendations. Based on these and other considerations, we will prepare and present you with a written SoA, or in some cases depending on the circumstances, an RoA. We will explain in the SoA (or RoA) the basis for the advice, and any remuneration, benefits or associations which could have influenced the advice.

Where we recommend financial products, we will provide you with a PDS or other disclosure document containing information about each product recommended, to help you make an informed decision about whether to purchase that product.
- 5.) We will discuss our recommendations with you, make any changes you require and gain your agreement to implement those recommendations.
- 6.) We will then implement those recommendations.
- 7.) We will meet with you periodically to review your financial circumstances if we agree to an ongoing advice service arrangement which includes a regular review component. If an ongoing advice service arrangement is entered into, this will be documented in your Ongoing Advice Service Arrangement Letter and/or SoA. Where you have entered into an ongoing fee arrangement after 1 July 2013, we will renew your arrangement with you at a minimum of every two years.

We will also explain to you any significant risks of the financial products and strategies which we recommend to you. If you are unclear of the risks, do not hesitate to question us further.

In certain circumstances, we may not provide you with personal advice via a SoA or RoA, as outlined above. These circumstances may include:

- 1.) Where we provide you with only general advice, such as through seminars and newsletters;
- 2.) Further advice or verbal advice – if you previously received advice recorded in a SoA, any further personal advice provided by us may be recorded in a RoA. We will not necessarily provide you with a copy of the RoA unless you request it (see below).

WHAT DOCUMENTS DO YOU GET IF WE PROVIDE FURTHER ADVICE?

Where a further review is conducted, and personal advice is provided, in some circumstances we are not required to provide you with a SoA for this further advice. Where this is the case, if you have not already been provided with a RoA, you may request a copy of the RoA from us by contacting us (on any of the contact details set out in Part 2 of this Guide) for a period of seven years from when the further advice was first provided to you.

HOW CAN YOU INSTRUCT US?

You may specify how you would like to give us instructions, for example, by phone, fax or email using any of the contact details set out in Part 2 of this Guide. Alternatively, you may provide instructions to us in person. Where instructions are provided by telephone, these must be confirmed in writing.

HOW ARE WE PAID FOR OUR SERVICES?

We and Astute Wealth Planning may receive:

- fees paid by clients;
- commissions paid by product providers;
- other payments by product providers; and
- other benefits.

Fees and commissions are payable (as directed by your Authorised Representative) to any of Astute Wealth Planning. We may receive up to 100% of any fees and commissions received.

Details of any fees, commissions or other benefits that we, Astute Wealth Planning or other associated persons are entitled to receive if you implement our recommendations in relation to a specific financial product, will be disclosed to you in your SoA or RoA when personal advice is given.

WHAT TYPE OF FEES, COMMISSIONS, PAYMENTS AND OTHER BENEFITS DO WE RECEIVE FOR OUR SERVICES?

The types of fees, commissions and other benefits that may be received by us and by Astute Wealth Planning include the following:

Service fees

We will discuss and agree our fee structure with you before we provide you with services. The types of fees you can be charged are listed below. You may be charged a combination, or part of, any of these fees.

Fees for advice

We may charge fees for the preparation, presentation and implementation of our advice. These fees will be based on your individual circumstances, the complexity involved in your situation and the time it takes to prepare personal financial advice for you. We will discuss these fees with you and gain your agreement to the fees before we provide you with advice.

Ongoing advice fees

We may charge a fee to provide ongoing portfolio reviews and/or for the provision of ongoing services.

This fee will be agreed with you and is either a set amount, or an amount based on the amount of funds under our advice, and/or the time involved in reviewing your portfolio and circumstances.

Referral fees

If we refer you to another business to provide you with services, we may receive referral fees. Those fees may vary according to the party to whom we are referring, and the products involved.

We will provide written notification to you if we are likely to receive referral fees for referring you to another service provider.

Payment methods

Our fees are either invoiced to you directly, or deducted from your investments, or a combination of these methods.

Where it is debited from your investments it is normally referred to as the Adviser Service Fee.

In most instances you will be able to select the method of payment that suits you best. We will discuss and agree the method of payment with you before we provide you with services.

Commissions

If you take out a financial product through us, Astute Wealth Planning may receive payments in the form of initial commissions and/or ongoing commissions from the financial product providers. These commissions are included in the fees, premiums and interest rate (in the case of margin loans) you pay for the product. This is not an additional cost to you. We may agree to rebate some or all of these.

The commission payable for different classes of financial products include the following:

Investment Products

For investment products, including superannuation and annuities, commissions are generally deducted from the funds you invest. Commissions on investment products may only be payable in certain circumstances where an arrangement exists as at 1 July 2013. Where you acquire an investment product before 1 July 2014, commissions may be payable where Astute Wealth Planning has an existing arrangement with the product issuer prior to 1 July 2013.

Astute Wealth Planning may receive between 0% and 1.1% of your initial investment as initial commissions from product providers whose products are recommended to you. Astute Wealth Planning may also receive ongoing commissions from the management fees of the product providers.

Ongoing commissions range between 0% and 1.5% p.a. of your investment balance. Astute Wealth Planning may pass up to 100% of these commissions to us.

Example

We recommend you invest $10,000 in an investment product. The applicable initial commission is 1% and ongoing commissions are 1% p.a. Astute Wealth Planning may receive initial commission of $100 and may pass up to $100 of that to us. Assuming the investment amount stays the same, each year Astute Wealth Planning will receive ongoing commission of $100 and may pass up to $100 to us.

Life Insurance Products

Initial and ongoing commissions from insurance providers may be received by Astute Wealth Planning. These commissions are paid to Astute Wealth Planning by the company that issues the product that Astute Wealth Planning's Advisers recommend to you and they are included in what you pay for the product. The commissions vary and are based on the policy cost, which is the sum of the premiums you pay and may include other fees related to the product.

The initial commission is paid in the first year by the product issuer to Astute Wealth Planning. Ongoing commissions are payments paid by product issuers to Astute Wealth Planning in the years after the first year.

If you initiate an increase to your cover, Astute Wealth Planning may receive initial and ongoing commissions on the increase to your policy cost. The ongoing commission on a client-initiated increase is only paid in respect of the period that starts from the first anniversary of the increase.

If the initial commission is equal to the ongoing commissions (as a percentage of your policy cost), Astute Wealth Planning may receive up to 40% (excl. GST) of your annual policy cost. If the initial commission is higher than the ongoing commissions, the maximum commission that Astute Wealth Planning may receive is set out in the table below:

Date a new product is issued	Initial commission (% of annual policy cost or increase excl. GST)	Ongoing commission pa (% of annual policy cost or increase excl. GST)
Before 1 January 2018 or before 1 April 2018 when the application was received prior to 1 January 2018	0 - 140%	0 - 38.5%
1 January 2018 - 31 December 2018*	0 - 80%	0 - 20%
1 January 2019 - 31 December 2019*	0 - 70%	0 - 20%
From 1 January 2020*	0 - 60%	0 - 20%

* Astute Wealth Planning may receive the pre-1 January 2018 commission rates above from the product issuer if:

- > your policy was issued before 1 January 2018 and you exercise an option to establish new or additional cover under your policy after 1 January 2018; or
- > your policy was issued before 1 January 2018 and is replaced after 1 January 2018 to correct an administrative error.

Example

You have an existing policy with us, issued in 2017, and in 2018 you decide to increase the cover on that policy with a corresponding increase in policy cost of $100 pa. Astute Wealth Planning may receive up to $140 (140% excl. GST) as initial commission on that increase and may pass up to $140 pa to us. The ongoing commission payable to Astute Wealth Planning in respect of this increased policy cost may be up to $38.50 (38.5% excl GST).

Or, we recommend an insurance product to you and it is issued on 2 April 2018. The annual policy cost is $450. Astute Wealth Planning may receive up to $360 (80% excl. GST) as an initial commission. Assuming the policy cost stays the same each year, Astute Wealth Planning may receive up to $90 pa (20% excl. GST) as an ongoing commission and may pass up to $90 pa to us.

On 2 September 2018, you decide to increase your insurance cover. The cost of this increased cover is $100. The initial commission payable to Astute Wealth Planning in respect of this increase will be up to $80 (80% excl. GST) as the increase has occurred in 2018. The ongoing commission payable to Astute Wealth Planning in respect of this increased policy cost will be up to $20 pa (20% excl. GST), payable in respect of the period starting from the first anniversary of the date on which you increased your insurance cover (i.e. 2 September 2019).

On 2 September 2020, you decide to increase your insurance cover again. The cost of this increased cover is $100. The initial commission payable to Astute Wealth Planning in respect of this increase will be up to $60 (60% excl. GST). The ongoing commission payable to Astute Wealth Planning in respect of this increase will be up to $20 pa (20% excl. GST), payable in respect of the period starting from the first anniversary of the date on which you increased your insurance cover (i.e. 2 September 2021).

You'll find details of how your insurance policy cost is calculated in the relevant PDS that we provide you. Where personal advice is provided to you, you'll also find details of the commission that Astute Wealth Planning and we are entitled to receive if you decide to purchase a life insurance product, in your SoA or RoA.

OTHER BENEFITS

From time to time we may accept alternative forms of remuneration from product providers or other parties, such as hospitality or support connected with our professional development (e.g. training or sponsorship to attend conferences). We maintain a register detailing any benefit we receive which is valued at between $0 and $300 and other benefits that relate to information technology software or support provided by a product issuer or that relate to educational and training purposes.

A copy of the register is available on request for a small charge.

WHAT FEES DO WE PAY TO SOMEONE WHO REFERS YOU TO US?

If you are referred to us we may pay the referrer a fee. We may also provide the referrer with gifts such as branded promotional items, hampers or gift vouchers.

The fee varies according to the referrer and financial products involved.

The fee may be a percentage of our fees, a percentage of the total amount invested paid through the referral, or a flat fee. We may pay these fees upfront when the financial service is provided, or the financial product is provided, or periodically as ongoing fees.
